ter, on Thursday, are also the production of "WHAT NO MEN WANT" and "QUO VADIS" - CRITERION

Lois Weber's picture, "What No Men Want" will be the feature at the Criterion Theatre this Sunday. It is a story that thrills and chills and touches the heart in its intensity. It touches the heart in its intensity in every man and makes him think of the things that are really worth while. A powerful picture with a wonderful theme is this great American drama of the hunt for happiness.

On Thursday, the Criterion will present the masterful picture "Quo Vadis". It covers a period in Rome, in the middle of the first century, when the Empire was tottering and the new faith, Christianity, was spreading throughout the world. The picture is a story of the life of a man who is persecuted for his faith. It is a story of the life of a man who is persecuted for his faith. It is a story of the life of a man who is persecuted for his faith.

"MOLLY O" AT RESTAURANT

Mabel Normand in "Molly O" will be the feature at the Criterion Theatre this Sunday. It is a story of the life of a man who is persecuted for his faith. It is a story of the life of a man who is persecuted for his faith. It is a story of the life of a man who is persecuted for his faith.

Audrey Munson, the artist's model, will be presented at this theatre in "The Queen of Sheba". It is a story of the life of a man who is persecuted for his faith. It is a story of the life of a man who is persecuted for his faith. It is a story of the life of a man who is persecuted for his faith.

Next to the thrilling chase between "Mabel" and "Yulish" which comes to the Olympia Theatre next Thursday, and "Katie" and "Katie" which comes to the Olympia Theatre next Thursday, and "Katie" and "Katie" which comes to the Olympia Theatre next Thursday.

This Sunday, the Olympia will present Bert Lytell in "Alias Lady Fingers". It is a story of the life of a man who is persecuted for his faith. It is a story of the life of a man who is persecuted for his faith. It is a story of the life of a man who is persecuted for his faith.

THE AMERICAN WOODMEN TO GIVE AWAY AN AUTOMOBILE

St. Louis To Enter Contest For The House Of The American Woodmen

The house office of the American Woodmen is going to move and the officers and members of the order here are determined to convince the Supreme Council that St. Louis is the place for it. Mr. White, the Supreme Commander while in the city a few days ago made it plain that other cities were in the race for the house office and while St. Louis is the best place from a financial standpoint, it would be necessary for it to make a substantial showing in new members. As beginning on TUESDAY FEBRUARY 21, the members of the order will launch the biggest membership drive ever pulled off in the city.
